

Jesus is King

Three-Fold Office: Prophet, Priest, King

- Prophet
- Priest
- King

“There is scarcely a grander or more widespread image used in the Bible than king. Impressive in physical appearance, honored and respected by his people, the king was the dispenser of protection, justice and mercy and a symbol of power and authority. In the Bible two royal images are found – God as king and humans as kings. It is important in the Bible’s theology that the latter reflects the former and that ultimately, the two merge into one.” - Dictionary of Biblical Imagery
